SPONSORSHIP & EXHIBITION PROSPECTUS

For sponsorship inquiries, please contact Norihide Fukushima at n-fukushima@cs.kinran.ac.jp or +81 (6) 6872-7869

We are excited to announce that the 18th Congress of the International Society for Organ Donation Professionals (ISODP) will be held December 3-6, 2025, in Kyoto, Japan. The 2025 Congress is co-hosted by ISODP and Japan Transplant Conference (JTC) in the cultural and beautiful city, Kyoto!

An important component of our Congress is the opportunity for participants to interact with one another, share information, and build relationships with other professionals in the organ & tissue donation and transplantation community.

The ISODP Congress continues to grow with around 300-500 delegate. We are looking forward to a record-breaking attendance around 700 in 2025!

We invite you to learn more about opportunities to support this international Congress. Enclosed you will find the wide variety of sponsorship, exhibition, and advertising benefits to meet everyone's needs.

We hope you will consider the opportunity to support ISODP and its global efforts to expand the lifesaving and healing mission of donation. Please reach out with any registration questions you may have to n-fukushima@cs.kinran.ac.jp. Questions regarding sponsorship opportunities may also be directed to Norihide Fukushima to n-fukushima@cs.kinran.ac.jp or +81 (6) 6872-7869.

ISODP Benefits

Community Building - Sponsors will have the opportunity to position themselves within the organ donation and transplantation community as an influential partner for individuals and agencies working in this area. Sponsors of the event will be offered a voice within the global community, whether virtual or in-person.

Generation of Prospects - There are sponsorship and exhibition opportunities that will give you direct access to your target market and assist you in developing feasible prospects with customers of sponsored products and services within the organ donation and transplantation community.

Interaction with the Audience- Sponsors will have the chance to showcase their thought leadership within the industry by developing content and inviting speakers to guide the conversation about the best practices and prevailing topics in the sector.

Brand Awareness - There are many acknowledged organizations in the field of organ donation and transplantation. Through sponsorship, we offer you the premier opportunity to make your brand the primary focus of our audience members, globally.

You can participate in sponsor categories depending on the amount of your contributed support. Total contributions will consist of advertisement, sponsored sessions, and exhibitor presence (excluding shipping, storage, drayage, and build-out/design of custom shells).

ISODP commits to ensuring the value of your partnership is demonstrated within the Sponsorship Levels & Benefits and are contingent upon the overall meeting design and scope. If you have any special requests, customized packages can be arranged to support your budget and core objectives.
